

Austin Jazz Workshop presents *Songs of the American Spirit

The AJW presents our 24th season in public schools, dedicated to vocal renditions of Depression-era popular songs like Bye Bye Blackbird, Pennies from Heaven, I've Got the World on a String, and others.

The assemblies are designed for grades three and higher, and are 45 minutes in length. They will be presented on the Thursdays and Fridays indicated below at 9:15 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Assemblies and workshops are presented at NO CHARGE to the individual schools in Austin ISD.

Please pick your top three choices for dates and indicate your preference for morning or afternoon in the spaces below. Remember that an Austin Jazz Workshop clinician will contact you to schedule classroom workshops to precede your performance, preferably occurring within the same week.

This year, the group will set up on the floor if possible. We will also use your projector and a laptop for song lyrics. Please provide four chairs and electric keyboard. If no keyboard is available, we will bring our own. We arrive 45 minutes early to set up.

PLEASE SCHEDULE BY THURSDAY AUGUST 31ST!
