

Austin Jazz Workshop presents John Coltrane's Giant Steps

The AJW presents our 27th season in public schools, dedicated to the music of saxophonist John Coltrane. This year's assemblies and classroom workshops will be presented via livestream.

The assemblies are designed for grades three and higher, and are 45 minutes in length. They will be presented on the Thursdays indicated below at one of the following times: 9:00, 10:00, 12:30, or 1:30. Workshops will occur during student music class specials times. Assemblies and workshops are presented at NO CHARGE to the individual schools in Austin ISD.

Please pick your top three choices for dates and times in the spaces below. Remember that an Austin Jazz Workshop clinician will contact you to schedule classroom workshops to precede your performance, preferably occurring within the same week. All livestream assembly performances by the quintet occur on Thursdays, so clinicians' workshops likely occur on Mon, Tue, or Wed the same week.

PLEASE SCHEDULE BY TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 22nd!
